

Italian-Welsh Culture

8 March 2014

Our next international day will be about Italian culture, and in particular Italian links with Wales. Topics and speakers include:

Dr Bruna Chezzi will provide a language-taster session and talk about her research into Italian immigration and integration into Wales.

Tom Clulee, who showed at the Milan Fashion Week for 8 years, will provide an insight into Italian Fashion

Cathy Al-Ghabra, a professional musician who trained at Cardiff, will delight us with some Italian music.

Sian B Roberts of Coginio will talk on her experience of eating her way around Italy

An Italian-themed buffet lunch will be provided
